

FHC Aluminum Push Button Latch With Tie Down

Item No. K5070

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Used for outswinging wood or metal screen or storm doors alike
- Contemporary design security latch strike
- The mounting holes are 3/4 in. on center
- Constructed of aluminum

- Features a night lock for security
- All necessary mounting hardware is included

Description: Overview This handle is designed for outswinging wood or metal screen and storm doors that are between 1 in. to 1-1/4 in. thick. The outside handle has a stylish contemporary design with a tie-down screw at the bottom of the handle and comes in an aluminum finish. It comes complete with an internal night lock, all necessary fasteners and the keeper to complete your new handle install.