

FHC White Push Button Latch With Tie Down (1 Set)

Item No. K5116

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Typically used on out swinging wood or metal screen or storm doors that are between 1 and 1-1/4 inch thick only
- Contemporary aluminum construction in white with a black plastic push button
- Mounting holes are 3/4 in. on center

- Features a night lock to keep you secure inside
- You may need to trim the post on the push button to fit your door
- All the necessary mounting hardware is included for a quick and simple installation

Description: Overview This is designed for out swinging wood or metal screen and storm doors that are 1 in. to 1-1/4 in. thick. The outside handle has a contemporary design with a tie-down screw at the bottom of the handle in a white finish. It comes complete with night lock, fasteners and the keeper.