

FHC Aluminum Casement Window Locking Handle (Single Pack)

Item No. H3539

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Used by a variety of aluminum and steel window manufacturers
- Universal design for left or right opening windows
- Mounting holes are 2-3/8 in. on center
- Diecast construction with an aluminum finish

- Can lock into place using security pin, Prime-Line part S 4071
- Mounting hardware included

Description: Overview This is a non-handed casement locking handle in an aluminum finish with mounting holes 2-3/8 in. on center. This is a universal design and the handle is made of a diecast construction with the handle hanging straight down and used by a variety of aluminum and steel windows. In addition, there is a 3/16 in. security hole that locks the casement lock in place with the 1/8 in. Prime-Line part S 4071 security pin (sold separately).