

FHC Right-Handed - Bronze - Casement Locking Handle With Offset Base (Single Pack)

Item No. H3599

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Used by many contemporary window manufactures
- This contemporary design is similar to a Truth hardware design

- 1-1/2 in on center mounting holes
- Diecast construction with a bronze finish
- Matching left hand casement operator is Prime-line part H 3598

Description: Overview This is a right-handed diecast casement locking handle with an offset base found on many contemporary casement windows (as viewed for the inside looking out). The mounting holes are positioned offset of the centerline down the base placing them closer to the window frame edge or to be more exact, 13/16 in. from the tip of the lock to the center of the mounting holes. This handle has an a bronze finish with mounting holes for the handle assembly and the keeper at 1-1/2 in. apart.