

FHC 27/32" Brass-Plated Housing And Plates - Steel Ball Catch And Inner Spring For Use With Hinged Doors (Single Pack)

Item No. U9132

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Spring-loaded ball catch helps keep interior hinged doors in closed position
- 27/32 in. diameter x 1-1/8 in. long barrel
- Constructed of brass-plated steel housing and plates with steel ball and inner spring
- Ball catch is fully adjustable
- Can be mounted on top of doors or on vertical edge

Description: Overview This ball bullet catch and strike is constructed of steel and come in a brass-plated finish. Features a fully adjustable barrel, and it can be installed on the top edge of hinged-swinging doors, or on the vertical edges. Helps keep doors in closed position without the use of a standard turn knob or lever, allowing the door to merely be pulled open without having to twist the wrist. These ball catches are for use with hinged-swinging doors, commonly used on closet doors, pantry doors, kid's room, etc. Easy to install and it is used by many.