

FHC Aluminum Window Pull And Latch - 4-Inch Height - Fits Hilite Windows

Item No. F2643

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Used with sliding windows as a pull and latch
- Plastic thumb button locks and releases latch
- Spring loaded friction system
- Extruded aluminum with a satin black finish
- Adjustable handle height
- Easy to install with a few simple tools
- A Phillips head screwdriver may be required for installation

Description: Overview This is an extruded aluminum window pull, with a self-latching handle in a satin black finish. This latch is spring loaded, and has an adjustable position that can be raised or lowered for convenience. This latch and pull handle measures 4 inches tall with a 1-3/32 inch width, and it is typically used on HiLite convertible windows. This extruded aluminum window pull is a self-latching handle, and it is easy to install.