

FHC Aluminum - Left-Hand - Louver Operator - International

Item No. H3617

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Used on International series 400 windows
- Left-handed, as viewed from inside looking out
- Mounting holes are 1 in. on center
- Aluminum construction with a mill finish

- Attaches to the moving arm of the jalousie or louver window
- Mounting hardware included

Description: Overview This is a lever style louver or jalousie operator used on International series 400 windows. It is left-handed and is of aluminum construction, with a grooved stud that attaches to the moving arm on the jalousie or louver frame. Mounting holes are 1 in. on center.