

FHC Deluxe Screen Shears Steel 10"

Item No. P8062

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Typically used to cut fiberglass and aluminum screen material for building or repairing screens or screen doors
- Designed with 10 in. blades and a comfort grip handle for easy cutting
- Cutting blades also designed to resist abrasions
- Constructed with molybdenum steel edges for durability
- The handles are painted black and the blades are set for easy horizontal cutting

- Right handed designed, but can be used with the left hand

Description: Overview These deluxe screen shears are constructed with molybdenum steel edges and come finished in black paint. These shears are designed to resist abrasions and offer easy cutting action when used to cut fiberglass and aluminum screening.