

FHC Showcase Window Key Lock - 9/16" x 5-1/2" - Steel - Chrome Plated - Fits 5/16" Glass (Single Pack)

Item No. U9949

Features, Advantages, and Benefits

- Used to lock a sliding panel up to 5/16 in. thick
- Typically used on glass display cases

- Can be special ordered to be keyed the same
- Diecast construction and chrome plated
- All hardware included for installation

Description: Overview This showcase and pass-thru window lock is constructed of steel and diecast metal components. Comes in a chrome plated finish. It features a 9/16 in. tall locking bar that extends 5-1/2 in. long, and it can fit on showcase glass panels up to 5/16 in. thick. This lock is fully adjustable to accommodate a variety of various closing alignments> It is easy to install, and uses an ILCO 1000X keyway. Keys are included with locking device.